ARGENTINE FINANCES IN 1892.

During the last session of Congress, when the Budget was under discussion, we pointed out that the revenue of the Republic could not be reasonably estimated at more than 22,000,000$ gold, or £1,400,000 sterling, and this estimate is in great measure borne out by the returns for 1891, which amount to 19,200,000$, or £3,800,000. Meantime the Minister's estimates for 1892 reach the prodigious figure of 35,800,000$ gold, or 80 per cent more than the revenue of 1891. We can see no reason for the receipts of the current year shewing any increase on those of last year, and hence we fear that this system of imaginary finances may lead to much trouble and disappointment.

This is the second year of the Moratorium contract, which terminates in December 1893. It is, therefore, of the utmost importance to consider what steps should be taken to modify the absurd convention in question. In 1891 the republic was unable to set aside any surplus towards the ultimate payment of the foreign debt, the service of which requires about £2,500,000 per annum, or even to burn $15,000,000 currency, as stipulated in the Moratorium.

It will be remembered that in January 1891 we strongly condemned the arrangement with Messrs. Rothschild and Lidderdale on the ground that it was impossible for the Argentine Government to fulfil such onerous conditions. The result proves how right we were, and now that experience shews the Moratorium to be extravagant and unjust the sooner it is cancelled the better. Otherwise the people of England at the close of 1893 will say that we have wilfully deceived them by promising what we could not perform.

SUMMER RESORTS.

In another column will be found a most interesting letter from Professor Kyle on that delightful spot in the mountains of Cordoba, Alta Gracia, where the Jesuits of olden time had their sanatorium. The new branch of the Central Argentine railway, from Rio Segundo, brings that place within easy reach of our city; the climate and surroundings are all that can be desired, and the charges in the hotels are exceedingly moderate. Under these circumstances it would not surprise us if Alta Gracia were to become a formidable competitor with Mar del Plata as a place of recreation and repose. Nobody better than the Jesuits knew how to select the best sites for their establishments, and Alta Gracia is another proof of this fact.

For three hundred years the people of Buenos Ayres had no summer resort of any kind, without leaving their own country. Some few of the aristocracy used to run down to Montevideo for sea-bathing; but when Mar del Plata was discovered, in 1887, it opened up a new field and became in a manner the Brighton of our city. There is, however, little at Mar del Plata beyond the salt-water baths; the surrounding country has nothing to shew, and the loungers on the beach, when tired of watching shoals of porpoises, have too often to recur to billiards or lansquenet. But, at Alta Gracia the mountains afford splendid scenery, in vigorating air, beautiful drives, and cool baths in the cascades that descend from the hills. On the whole we recommend our readers to try Alta Gracia, without prejudice to a week's sea-bathing at Mar del Plata.

CARDINAL MANNING'S FUNERAL.

We have received the following letter, and think the writer is mistaken in what he says. The pro-cathedral of the late Cardinal is not at Westminster but at Kensington. It is not clear that none but Anglican rites would be permitted at Westminster Abbey. We know as a fact that in December 1889 Dean Bradley (Dean of Westminster) allowed 500 R. Catholic pilgrims to celebrate the feast of St. Edward the Confessor by reciting the Rosary at his tomb. The late Dean Stanley, it will be remembered, in 1880 ceded the pulpit of Westminster Abbey to the Hindoo Brahmin, Chunder Sen, founder of the Somaj sect, which endeavored to engraft some principles of Christianity on the Hindoo creed. It is, therefore, quite possible that a Requiem Service for the late Cardinal may be sung by his clergy in the Abbey, especially if it be resolved to give the illustrious prelate and Englishman a tomb in its hallowed precincts, which would probably be the wish of the people of London, who dearly loved the Cardinal.

Mr. Editor,

You will excuse my pointing out an error, into which I think you have fallen, by misinterpreting the telegram about the obsequies of Cardinal Manning. The Cathedral mentioned in the telegram is the "Pro-Cathedral," a Roman Catholic edifice situate in Westminster.

In the Abbey no rites could be permitted but Anglican rites, and no officiants save Anglican priests. I do not think it probable that the Roman Catholic authorities would permit the interment of a Cardinal with Anglican rites; nor is it likely, considering the crowded condition of the Abbey, that a resting place would be offered to a foreign Prince; for such is the Cardinal's rank in England.

Yours truly,
Anglican.

PARIS LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Dec. 19th.

The conflict between the clergy and the republican party rather than the republic, may be viewed as blown over. The belligerents know very well that for many years to come the separation of Church and State must remain among the utopias.

After all, it was not worth while for the Minister of Public Worship to administer a "pandy" to an Archbishop in order to curry favor with estranged Italy. Hasty language is not a hanging offence as Moliere asserts that of bigamy to be. After the hurly-burly, it is by no means clear that the Minister can forbid the French bishops to head French pilgrimages outside France—which is the real point in dispute. M. Floquet intensified the irritation of the discussion by the intemperance and absence of tact displayed by him as president. His accusation, rather than assertion about the well-worn legend of Pius IX. having been a Free Mason was uncalled for and in bad taste. He missed an excellent opportunity for holding his tongue. He ought to have known, not only that as president, he had no right to take part in the debate, but that the remark would be offensive to a large section of the Chamber. That violation of neutrality will likely prevent M. Floquet's re-election as President of the Chamber, for if the opposition unites with the Opportunists to oust him in favour of Casimir Périer, exit Floquet. It is a common remark that the latter has "not been himself at all" since the Franco-Russian embracings. He had, as it were, to be kept under lock and key when high official rejoicings were indulged in. He was a kind of Banquo's ghost, recalling the Floquet of 1867, who in the Palace of Justice, on the occasion of the late Czar's visit thereto, exclaimed, Vive la Pologne, Monsieur! It is ever disagreeable to allude to rope in presence of the family of a hanged.

Although the advanced republicans have deposited a project of law for the abolition of the Concordat, that is for the separation of Church and State, the bill will lie on the table of the House to be read in six months. In any case it is only a "pose" for the gallery. Another project has been proposed to deprive the clergy of possessing property, as private donations enable many clergymen to live. Of the 35,000 Catholic clergymen in France, nearly 18,000 receive but 900 francs per annum from the State—a starvation salary. A Cardinal-Archbishop receives only 15,000 francs yearly, just the half of the salary Baron de Rothschild gives to his cook, and what Adelina Patti nets for an evening for three songs. In conclusion, the moderate, the fair play voters of France—happily the majority still—will not allow the clergy to be disendowed, in addition to being deprived of holding property, as a legally corporate body, such as exists in other countries. The Republic could never withstand the assault of an openly hostile clergy united to its natural enemies.

Not very great importance is attached to the "coup de tete" of the Foreign Minister by breaking off the informal and chaotic relations between France and Bulgaria, because the latter exercised the right that France herself claims, and has so frequently used, for expelling a troublesome resident foreigner, be he journalist or navvy. M. Ribot is held responsible for the blunder in recommending the prosecution of the Archbishop of Aix, in order to stroke down Italy; he seems to have blundered again in this Bulgarian incident, ostensibly to row more uniformly in the same boat with Russia. It is useless breaking a butterfly on a wheel, or splitting blocks with razors: in the present instance France cannot follow up her protest against little Bulgaria. That would be to unchain immediately the Damocle's sword-pending-war and in which all the world knows. Russia is totally unprepared to take a part. Nor will France be able to prevail on the astute Sultan to send troops to Sophia; his majesty refused to take that step when Bulgaria annexed Roumelia; and he has just winked at Prince Ferdinand issuing coin bearing his (the Prince's) own effigy. All this must be gall and wormwood to Russia, who finds herself baulked in the Balkans.

The Marquis of Dufferin will not present his credentials till the close of January. A man of his talent and tact, perhaps rather than genius, may save France from many a blunder by confidentially indicating with clearness the weak or dangerous parts in the present "diplomatic icefield." The Marquis has always got along well with the governments and the people to which he has been accredited, and the same success may be anticipated for him here. Besides being an Irishman, that will secure him a "cead mille feathia!" Talleyrand held that success for a diplomatist lay in giving good dinners and keeping well with the ladies. These are easy qualities for an Irishman; and, as the Marquis does not intend converting the British Embassy here into a saving's box, he will speedily become a popular social institution.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

The Mendoza storm is gathering, and the first flash of lightning has already illumined the overclouded political sky. The Legislature have deposed the Governor. They did it very neatly. Knowing that H. E. had police to prevent them from entering the Chambers, they had recourse to a mild ruse. They issued bulletins inviting the people to assist at the debate in the Chambers on Tuesday evening. The people rushed to the Legislature building and the police were concentrated at that quarter. In the meantime the honourable gentlemen assembled in a private house and deposed the Governor in the constitutional way by voting his impeachment. A long list of charges against the Governor was read out. This, however, is only the beginning of the end, for the Governor has not "caved in" yet, and the key-note of the situation will be sounded when Dr. Bermejo, the Vice-Governor, knocks at the door of the local Government House and demands the reins of power.

It cannot be said that this Mendoza business has been either sudden or unexpected. The deposition of the Governor by a hostile legislative majority was a mere question of days. The Radicals knew it was coming, and what makes things more complicated is that the resignation of Major Day has brought about a split in the Radical ranks. The upshot of all this will be intervention. The National Government will probably send up troops to enforce respect for the Legislature. It is to be hoped that no heads will be broken.

All the provinces are steeped in political excitement at present. Even Entre Rios is not free from the general complaint, and the recent interview between General Racedo and the Governor is looked upon as the forerunner of important events. In Cordoba, Rioja, Catamarca etc., the political parties are holding meetings, issuing bulletins and otherwise stirring up popular feeling. In the midst of all this political excitement it is quite refreshing to turn towards Rosario and witness the Municipal fight going on there at present. The Mayor can't stand the Corporators; the Corporators can't stand the Mayor, and it looks as if the Mayor will call them all out.

The Santa Fé Government have issued a decree, providing that the public offices receive "bonos" at their nominal value in payment of taxes in arrear and other bad debts. The "bonos" are so much depreciated that the National dollar enjoys a premium of 30 per cent over the "bono." The public offices, moreover, are to receive 50 per cent in "bonos" in payment of the Land and License taxes. The Santa Fé Government seems only half willing to acknowledge the paternity of the luckless "bono."

LADIES' LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

At French dinner parties, it is the custom in carving poultry to help the most distinguished lady-guest first, and to the right wing. The origin of this politeness dates from the marriage of Charles IX. at whose nuptial banquet the first turkey introduced into France was served; the bride was helped to the right pinion, and the king to the left.

Madame Sarah Bernhardt, like Tam O'Shanter, is now o'er á the ills of life victorious; her enemies swore by Juno that she was 55 years of age; the certificate of her baptism has been found: she was born in Paris on the 22nd October 1844; her mother was a Prussian, and a dress-maker; this can hardly explain why the Grand Sarah would never perform before a German audience since the 1870-71 war. The name of Sarah's "father" does not figure on the baptismal register. Although the exquisite "cooing" quality of Madame Bernhardt's voice has lost its wild freshness of morning, the Theatre-Francais is inclined to pardon her abrupt departure some years ago, and receive her again into its family of type-artistes. She is a grandmother since two years, and her delight is to make dresses for dolls, and her drawing room theatre of puppets. Her daughter-in-law is a genuine princess, and her son is an artist.

By the law of 1882, every child in France is bound to be instructed, if not at a public or private school at least at home. In the latter case, the children must be periodically examined at the local mayor's office before a jury, composed of an inspector of schools and two gentlemen and one lady who possesses Academic diplomas. The first examination under the new law has just taken place for children of both sexes, between the ages of 6 and 13, educated at home. The cases were few where the children illustrated ignorance to be bliss. The parents of the latter promised to comply with the law, failing which the authorities step in, and train up the child in the way it should go.

The increasing number of cases of parental cruelty to children has led to the formation of a society of ladies for the "prevention" of such unnatural conduct. The law is very vigorous in France against trespassing on the rights of parents; opinion is not quite in favor of turning the victim into an informer against his family persecutors, though no expense would be spared to bring the latter to justice. The relieving officers of the Public Charity Board are volunteers only, and except in extreme cases would hardly interfere. Good-intentioned ladies visit the popular quarters—not "slums," for such really do not exist in Paris—and distribute pamphlets with instructions how to act wherever a known case of child-cruelty exists. Where complaints are reiterated the matter is handed over to the police. A few old maids and old bachelors have been subject to some annoyance by the police making inquiries about the alleged ill-treatment of their offspring.

The new manager of the National Opera, who enters on his duty in January next, intends to supply Parisians with cheap promenade concerts, composed of first-class music, such as exist in London and other capitals. The inability of the French to comprehend cheap and good amusements explains why theatres are empty and why respectable concert-rooms do not exist.

Paris now counts two lady-dentists who hold professional diplomas. Their extraction claims to be painless; a smile from the operatress, doubtless "physics pain." In the rural districts of France, where medical aid is far distant, the local convents generally possess a nun who can extract teeth; I saw one of these ladies once operating, and she acquitted herself brilliantly. In the country districts every patient insists on receiving the extracted tooth; it brings luck they say. M Renau relates, that in Brittany, the old women carry their extracted teeth to the cemetery for interment in the family grave.

Some time ago, a petition was signed by Russian ladies, praying the Princess of Monaco to influence her husband to close the gambling palace in his principality. The Prince is willing to do so if he be secured a revenue from other sources. Besides, the gambling tables pay all the taxes of his subjects. France has already purchased part of the principality; she is willing to buy the rest, and abolish the international evil, if the European Powers consent. Convoke an anti-gambling Congress.

MURRIETA AND CO., LIMITED.

The affairs of C. de Murrieta and Co. do not seem to be moving in very smooth waters. This is to be much regretted. Nevertheless it cannot be said that anybody feels greatly surprised at the fact. It was generally felt when the business of the old firm was formed into a joint-stock company that the real difficulties which had previously presented themselves still remained for a proper solution. The answer to the problem was not found by merely registering with limited liabilities and creating a lot of debentures. More wisdom came to the aid of the Barings when their difficulties were taken in hand. A clean sweep was in that case made of the past.

All the old finance assets, if we may so term them, were got rid of, and the real business of the firm as merchants started under wholly new conditions, with new money and new blood of every kind. In the case of the Murrietas it was quite otherwise, and the troubles which were temporarily tided over in the summer of the current year have as a natural result once more forced themselves to the front, as was to have been anticipated. Everybody remembers the rumors which were current as to the way in which certain pressing claims were then arranged for, and the varying reports as to the period for which such aid had been volunteered. Some said it was for three months, some that it was for six months, and others that it was for two years.

What the actual period was may be judged better now. At all events, we understand that the position is at this moment exactly what it was about six months earlier. Considerable claims are maturing at the end of the current year, and the question is, how are they to be met? For some time past there have been whisperings of a scheme having for its object the formation of a sort of trust undertaking into which to throw the assets of the company. This, it would further seem, the members of the old firm have strenuously resisted in spite of the pressure which the debentureholders would appear to have brought to bear upon them. What may be the ultimate mode of adjusting these affairs we will not venture to say, but we seem to get some sort of key to the future by means of a paragraph which was published on Saturday in the columns of the Times, according to which the shareholders of the South American and Mexican Company are to be called together on Friday next, "to approve an arrangement which the directors have made for acquiring the commercial business of Messrs. C. de Murrieta and Co". "The fixed and secured liabilities of the firm," runs on the paragraph, "will be taken over by a new company, who will acquire the whole of their assets. In this arrangement the debentureholders of Messrs. C. de Murrieta and Co. have, it is stated, been fully safeguarded." Put into simple terms this announcement means that a Murrieta Assets Company is after all to be formed, while the commercial business is to be acquired by the South American and Mexican Company. As to that business the general impression is that there is really very little of it and that what will be acquired will be merely by goodwill, the value of which is dependent on the esteem (which, we have no doubt, is very high) in which the old connections regard the firm. The position of the debentureholders is not clear under this proposed arrangement, seeing that they were supposed to have a first charge over everything which was susceptible of inclusion in the Murrieta estates. But with regard to the South American and Mexican Company, it would appear, from what we can learn, that the shareholders in that undertaking were made acquainted for the first time with the foregoing part of the programme of the Friday's meeting through the instrumentality of the Times paragraph. On the 10th inst. they received from the secretary a circular convening that meeting, which was said to be for the purpose of considering "the terms upon which the directors have arrangued to dispose of the unissued balance of the capital of the company." That did not imply such business as acquiring the goodwill of the commercial business of Messrs. C. de Murrieta and Co.. but assuming the Times announcement to be correct, the two purposes of the forthcoming gathering would seem to run in a sort of double harness. We have no intention to discuss at length the bearings of this business, expecially as it may not come to anything. It seems, however, to us that the scheme is one which should have been taken up with vigour a long while ago. We said at the very outset of the troubles that if the firm's legitimate business was to be kept together and saved from being ultimately strangled it would be necessary to apply the knife deep, and excise the unhealthy financial growth which was sapping to its last grain the credit of the firm.

The case was on all fours in most respects with that of the old house of Baring. In each the same disease was diagnosed, and in each the wisest heads in the City recommended the same remedy so far as a separation of parts was concerned. It is somewhat late in the day to come round to a conviction that there was wisdom in the reccommendation; but better late than never. The only question is as to the advisability of transferring the commercial business to the South American and Mexican Company. The one thing in favour of it is that the concern is really the offspring of the Murrieta financial connections. That might prove in some sort a source of strength. Cristobal de Murrieta acts as chairman of that concern, and with him is associated on the board P. J. de Galindez. We say a source of strength, meaning, of course, that while the Murrieta interest continued to be closely identified with the absorbing concern there would be the better chance of keeping alive and further cultivating old connections. As regards the South American and Mexican Company itself, this was formed in June last year with a share capital of £2,000,000 in shares of £10 each, of which £200,000 consisted of founders' shares. A first issue was then made of £1,500,000. At a general meeting held on the 31st July last a resolution was passed by which the directors were given authority to issue the balance of the share capital in £10 preference shares, but so far as we can learn none of these shares have yet been issued. Doubtless, then, this is the unplaced portion of the capital to which the directors refer in the notice convening the meeting for Friday next.

THE LOVELIEST SPOT IN ARGENTINA.

Casa de Moneda,
January 19th.

Mr. Editor,

Having just returned with part of my family from Alta Gracia, to which mountain village I had been attracted by reading an article in your columns a few weeks ago, I can endorse every word then written in its praise. It is indeed a lovely spot; and visitors who can put up with the slight inconvenience of having to walk a few hundred yards to take their meals at Federico Koenig's Restaurant, and who can exist without being surrounded by all their home comforts, may spend a week or two in Alta Gracia, sure of getting a good square meal twice a day and a clean bed at night, and may thoroughly enjoy its pure dry air, balsamic with the odour of the lovely mountain flowers and shrubs, its charming scenery and delightful "paseos" to the hills and valleys, mountain streams, foaming cascades and fern-clad cliffs of the Sierras de Cordoba. Visitors should take saddles with them, to avoid delay in hunting up recados, which, although obtainable on hire, cannot always be had at a moment's notice.

Horses cost a dollar a day, are tame as lambs, sure-footed, and scramble like goats up and down the mountain paths. Ladies must not expect to find carriages to drive about in, but if unable to ride can walk in the morning or evening when the sun is low, and can always find shady nooks to sit in and may bathe in water clear as crystal in numbers of suitable places.

I will gladly give any further details as to cost of living, etc., to persons inclined to try Alta Gracia as a holiday resort, moved by no other interest than the wish to convince English residents who may never have seen anything in this country more picturesque than the Tigre, that the Argentine Republic boasts scenery easily accessible from Buenos Aires, in no degree inferior to that of the old country; and I can assure them that the view of the village, its old church and court, with its back-ground of many-tinted mountains, as seen in the early morning from the valley, is indeed a "thing of beauty," and its remembrance will be "a joy for ever."

Yours truly,
John J. J. Kyle,

PRICE OF BREAD.

20th January.

Mr. Editor,

When the price of flour goes up 10% we generally hear of it through our friends the bakers by an increase of about 15% in their charges.

When, on the other hand, there is a stiff fall in the price of flour, as at present, we are left to find this out for ourselves, the monthly bill having nothing whatever to say on the subject.

The best flour has fallen in price from $3.10 or $3.20 to $2.30 or $2.40, and I would like to suggest. Through the medium of your valuable paper, that heads of families should do as I have just done, viz., send a notice to their baker that from the first of the ensuing month they will no longer continue to pay present prices.

If many combine to do this the bakers will soon be brought to a reasonable frame of mind.

I am, dear Sir,
Yours truly.
Pater.

OBITUARY.

The telegrams we published yesterday announce the death of two persons of note, namely the Very Rev. Anthony Anderly, General of the Jesuit Order, and the Archduke Charles Salvador, brother of the late Grand Duke Ferdinand of Tuscany. The late General of the Jesuit Order was born at Brig, in Switzerland, in the year 1819. In 1853 he was appointed rector of the Theological Institute of Jesuits in Cologne; three years later he passed in a similar capacity to Paderborn. In 1859 he became Provincial, and 6 years later we find him in the chair of Theology at Coblentz. In 1870 he became assistant to Father Beck, General of the Order, and finally in 1884 he was appointed General of the Order.

The Archduke Charles Salvador was born in Florence in 1839, and on the dethronement of his family 20 years later he left his native land. In 1861 he married the Princess Maria Clementina de Bourbon, daughter of the King of Sicily. The Archduke never figured much. One of his sons married the daughter of the Emperor of Austria and is heir presumptive to the Hapsburg crown.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

Engineer Barabino has reported on Messrs. Barry and Co's project for the construction of a bridge across the Riachuelo at Barracas. Mr. Barabino urges the Board of Public Works to throw out the project, such a bridge as the proposed one being useless. Talking of bridges, we note an application to Government for $2000 for repairing the bridge across the Gualeguay.

We take the following traffic returns from our London exchanges of Dec. 19th:—

Argentine Great Western.—Traffic receipts for the week ending Dec. 2, $18,600 against $29,792 in 1890.

Buenos Ayres and Pacific—The approximate earnings for the week ending December 5 were $63,200. Miles open 426.

Cordoba Central.—The approximate earnings for the week ended Dec. 6 were as follows:—Original Line, $16,500 against $12,231 for corresponding week in 1890; increase $4 69. Aggregate to date, $666,637 against $458,138; increase, $208,499. Miles open, 1284. Central Northern Section, $38,000 against $60,102 for corresponding week in 1890; decrease, $22,102. Aggregate to date, $2,166,024 against $2,843,346; decrease, $677,322. Miles open 1491.

East Argentine.—Traffic receipts for week ending Oct. 4—1891 (total paper currency received), $8,107 against $13,232; decreased, $5,125. Estimated sterling value of paper received, £399 against £1,072; decrease £673. Aggregate receipts converted into sterling for 38 weeks and 4 days, £15,826, against £26,408 (one day more) in 1890; decrease, £10,672.

North West Argentine.—Traffic receipts for week ending Nov. 1—1891, $8,545; 1890, $4,814; increase, $3,731. Aggregate from July 1—1891, $208,415; 1890, $92,629; increase, $110,972.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

"Oh! Ah! Faugh! "Caramba"! the worst day yet! "I'm thoroughly done up!" Such were the moaning and groaning ejaculations of panting and perspiring Buenos Ayres humanity yesterday. It was awful. Rivers of all kinds of beverages went down the public throat in vain; all the bath-houses were crowded from dawn till night; but all devices to get cool and keep so failed. The barometer fell a little at one hour of the day and gave hopes of rain; but "it cometh not" was the general sigh till night-fall. If it does not rain soon we'll all be fried alive.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. James Daniel Hodge, who expired rather suddenly in Mendoza, on Tuesday. The deceased gentleman had a wide circle of friends who will sincerely mourn his premature demise.

President Pellegrini is expected in town this morning from Mar del Plata, and will at once resume the reins of State.

The political flare-up in Mendoza made people start yesterday. So far there are no "wigs on the green" but it is to be feared that there will be soon.

There was a terrific fire in the woods of Ushuaia, Tierra del Fuego, lately. They blazed away for ten days, and the town had a narrow escape. A sudden change of wind saved the situation.

We are sorry to see our anonymous friend N. so distressed in what we are willing to consider his mind about three things—Cardinal Manning's funeral, the new Port Captain at Montevideo, and the STANDARD's accuracy. We never publish anonymous communications.

Another big cigar smuggle has been unearthed in the Custom House by that energetic official Inspector Ouvinas, $80,000. Not a cent less; and perhaps a lot more.

Some eighty blue-jackets of the American men-of-war Essex, Yantic and Tallapoosa played Base Ball on the river-side at Palermo on Tuesday till darkness set in. There were many people looking on, and both players and spectators seemed to enjoy the fun thoroughly.

We beg to thank Captain Spooner of the R. M. S. Clyde for kindly taking charge of the bill for £72-10-0 for Mrs. Rowsell, which he will deliver to the Secretary of the Company at Southampton. The London and River Plate Bank kindly gave such a favourable rate of exchange for the draft that the amount instead of £70 as we anticipated, amounts to £72-10. We have forwarded in our letter to Mrs. Rowsell a list of the subscriptions.

The health of the city has been wonderfully good up to the present this summer; but we regret to hear that the Bateman Legacy drains, with their shocking effluvia in some quarters of town, are now producing cases of intermittent fever in an increasing ratio. Oh! the B. L.! the B. L!

The fashionable wager now is not a hat, or a box of Havannahs, or a new suit of clothes, but a case of Argentine Champagne Cider made by Cunnington and Co. of Cordoba, for whom Messrs. Amilien and Co. of 333 Calle San Martin, are the agents in this city. Some Cunning hand manufactures this cider, which may be considered the Refresher General in these broiling days.

How is this, with all the talk of a phenomenal harvest? The Entre Rios Government has just abolished by decree the tax (illegal by the National Constitution) on cereals. The ground for this wise step is not the illegality of the impost, but the unpleasant fact that the yield of cereals in the province is fully fifty per cent less this year than last.

Government has refused the sporting offer of Mr. Fuster to let it have his railway work-shop, to patch up any screws that get loose on the National lines. No shinplasters for such tempting investments now. There is not even cash enough to buy an old, rotten steamer now and then — a favourite investment with the National Government a few years ago.

Hawthorne and Longfellow went to Bowdoin College as classmates, and each wrote verses during his college career. When the class picture was taken—there were no photographers in those days, but a "silhouette artist" did the work—Hawthorne absolutely refused to sit. He was a poor student, being one of twelve who received no commencement parts on graduation in 1825, but he acquired at college the art of writing elegant Latin as well as elegant English.

The World of New York "tiene la palabra" has caught the Spea—we mean the Editor's eye, in fact:—"The Georgia girl known as the "human magnet", because of her singular electric force, has been having a successful career in England, and she has now reached to top notch of advertising fame in having cured the Prince of Wales of a neuralgic headache. Other American girls have, less ostentatiously, cured the aches of British aristocrats, but they have usually been heartaches."

In spite of the nightly alarms lots of people go out to Maldonado to see the troops of the garrison in their encampment. We positively envy the Argentine Tommy Atkins under his cool canvas in the broiling hot nights, when half the population of the city is utterly unable to come to terms with "Nature's soft nurse," owing to the dreadful temperature, flies, mosquitoes, howling cats, barking dogs, Bateman Legacy stenches and other drawbacks.

Our outspoken colleague the Censor gives it hot to the perfumed republicans and republicanesses at the Bristol Hotel Mar del Plata, for indulging in the gaucho dance, "el pericon." It does seem rather strange to see the "creme de la creme" taking their dances from that low and shady play "Juan Moreira".

On account of the death of the Captain of the Port at Montevideo, Col. Dupuy, the festivities which it was intended to hold on Monday to celebrate the reduction of the port dues, stand postponed until next Monday the 25th instant, when we hope it won't rain, to spoil the innocent jollification of the Mount shipping fraternity.

In Montevideo they seem to have the same revolutionary alarms as here. Special vigilance is still maintained in the barracks, Custom House, and other strategic points of the city. The police are so occupied studying military drill and evolutions that their proper duties are being neglected.

The "vecinos" have given over watering the trees opposite their houses since the Lord Mayor stopped the hose abuse. They say it was no trouble to water the trees with the hose, but the servants cannot lose time in carrying water to the trees; the result is that the latter are shriv

Messrs. Moore & Tudor, Maipu 163, B. Aires.
Chascomus, March 23rd 1891.
Dear Sirs—
"I have tried HAYWARD'S "PASTE" DIP on my Sheep, and have pleasure in bearing testimony to ITS EFFICACY AS A DIP. I need have no hesitation in recommending it generally as a Cure for Scab, without discolouring or damaging the Wool. The "PASTE" is in my opinion preferable to the Powder, and will probably have a larger sale than the latter."
Yours very truly
(Signed)
JOHN KELLIE.
It has been proved by many important Estancieros that HAYWARD'S PASTE is more convenient to use than any other Dip, being already mixed and dissolving in any kind of water. It makes a smooth soapy bath which adheres well to the Fleece and leaves the wool clean and soft.

ON 'CHANGE.

Wednesday, Jan. 20.

In spite of the bad news from Mendoza and of all the political rumors in the hall, the gold market ruled weak this morning. The news that the Mendoza Legislature had deposed the Governor, that fresh complications were imminent, that, etc., etc., etc., all fell flat upon the market and failed to put up the premium. The market believes that the political climax is near, and it connects that climax with a headlong fall in gold; people are convinced that the National Government will nip in the bud every attempt at rebellion. All believe that the moment the bubble bursts gold must fall.

Over twenty thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the prices opened at 63.20, fell steadily, and closed at 62.70. Seven hundred sovereigns were sold at $19.55 and 19.50. Gold ruled weak all morning.

In stocks and shares great dullness prevailed. National Cedulas E advanced to 72½ and C from 69 to 70. La Plata Cedulas were a drug in the market.

The exchange market continues very weak. At an early hour this morning sterling exchange was done at 48¾ and 48¾d. As the day grew the rate fell, and at noon banking paper was quoted at 48 to 48¼d., and private paper at 48¼d. Francs were done direct on Paris at 5.09½, but closed weak at 5.09; banks asked as low as 5.05. There can be no longer any doubt that both the Government and the banks have been taking large amounts of exchange for the last ten days.

The cheques of the Provincial Bank closed this morning at 41 % discount, those of the National Bank at 27 %, of the English Bank 20 % paper and 9 % gold discount. Bonos of the La Plata Mortgage Bank were quoted at 33½ % discount.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to day:—

The news on 'Change this evening was that President Pellegrini had left Mar del Plata and would arrive here to-morrow morning early, in view of the critical state of affairs in Mendoza and in this capital.

All kinds of alarming rumours were floated on 'Change this afternoon: some of them were awfully absurd. They produced little or no effect on the gold premium.

The Lamport and Holt steamer Hevelius will leave port to-morrow for Europe.

The Platense steamer Mercurio is posted to leave for Patagones next Sunday. Mr. de Castro, the concessionaire of the Rio Negro flotilla, will leave in her for the Rio Negro.

The gold market ruled steady at the second ring: the ounce closed heavy at 62.80$ and the sovereign at 19.55. Stocks and shares were neglected. The shares of La Primitiva bag factory were firm at 92, those of the French Bank at 31 gold, Catalinas at 7, and Banco Inmobiliario at 26. A fair amount of debentures of the Banco Hipotecario de la Capital changed hands at 40.30 gold.

TEA LA MAGNOLIA

INJURIOUS TEA DRINKING.

In the "Daily Post" of September 2 appears a leading article—evidently from an analytical expert—showing that after 12 minutes "draw," Indian Tea yields 17·73 of tannin, while from China comes only 7·93. What this means few know, but those troubled with indigestion may realise in part by use of True China Tea for one week.

LAIDLAW'S

Tobacco Powder

Laidlaw's Tobacco Powder has many advantages over Arsenic Powders and Pastes for curing Scab.

Laidlaw's Tobacco Powder has none.

Arsenic Powders and Pastes are very dangerous and in many cases large lots of Sheep, Cattle and Horses have been killed by them.

Laidlaw's tobacco Powder has no bad effects on either Sheep or men applying it.

Laidlaw's Tobacco Powder costs less than Arsenic Powders and Pastes, is always of one uniform strength and can be relied upon with perfect confidence, and does not injure the wool, but on the contrary improves the quality and increases the quantity.

ARSENIC POWDERS AND PASTES

Dry and burn the wool, and diminish the quality and quantity.

EXTRACT OF TOBACCO.

According to numerous testimonials which we hold the extract of pure tobacco is the only infalible remedy to radically cure the scab in sheep, and naturally the cheapest. As there are several trade marks like ours care must be taken to see that the extract bears the key marks, without which it is not genuine.

Directions for use

One part of extract mixed with 100 to 150 parts of hot or cold water for bath, and with 80 to 100 parts for hand curing.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

CHLORODYNE.

The original and only genuine

Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. J. Collis Brown, (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, etc.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5, 1880.

To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London. Lear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the widespread reputation this justly esteemed medecine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan; but all over the East. As a remedy for general utility, we must question wether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are so sorry to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent, we could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, have occurred under our personal observation dury many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's from a firm Conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate Breach of Faith on the part of the Chemist to prescribe and Patient alike. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes and Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain. His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne, was, undoubtedly, the Inventor of Chlorodine; that the story of the defendant Freeman "Times," July 13, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 8, 1 1/2d., 2s. 9d., 4. 6d., and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

CAUTION.—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.

Calle San Martin 272 and Lavalle 1212

Rich assortment of legitimate Turkish cigarrettes and tobacco, the only kinds that do not injure smokers, being recommended by the most illustrious physicians in Europe and this country.

Whoever desires to preserve his health should smoke exclusively our tobacco, which is more aromatic and more palatable in comparison than any other. Dr. Pirovano says in his letter of 23rd December 1891 about our tobacco.

"Your tobacco is less prejudicial to the health than any I have yet tried."

TO AMATEURS

The undersigned would respectfully announce to their amateur friends and customers that the building which they now occupy having been sold, they will be obliged to move into new quarters at the close of the present month. They will in consequence be compelled to discontinue the work for amateurs which they have heretofore carried on, but take pleasure in recommending to all requiring such work the Scandinavian Artist and Photographer, Mr. Adrian Lundstrum, 521 Cangallo, office 36, who has purchased this branch of their business and to whom they have delivered all negatives belongings to amateurs which were in their possession.

Very respectfully,
